

Technology Resources

The following websites are recommended for teacher, student, and/or parent use. While links to the Ohio Department of Standards for Visual Art are not clearly defined within the sites, all sites were chosen based on the relevancy to the state standards and benchmarks. In addition, as of May 2009 these sites are accessible at TPS schools.

Ohio Department of Education Visual Art Content Standards

- Historical, Cultural and Social Contexts
- Creative Expression and Communication
- Analyzing and Responding
- Valuing the Arts/Aesthetic Reflection
- Connections, Relationships and Applications

<http://www.artcyclopedia.com>

- encyclopedia site with options to search by artists by name, artworks by title, art museums, art movements, and more
- K-8 grade age-appropriate

<http://artsedge.kennedy-center.org>

- teacher resources aligned with National Standards for Art Education
- easy search feature to search by grade level
- keyword search feature to check ODE Visual Art Standards

<http://www.albrightknox.org/artgames/loader.html>

- Albright-Knox Art Gallery education department
- Excellent interactive art games which encourage students to find objects in famous images, create their own artwork, build compositions, and more
- K-6 grade age-appropriate

http://www.alifetimeofcolor.com/study/g\_art\_elements.html

- created by Sanford
- good definitions of elements
- 4-8 grade age-appropriate

http://www.alifetimeofcolor.com/study/g\_art\_principles.html

- created by Sanford
- good definition of principles
- 4-8 grade age-appropriate

<http://www.artsconnected.org/toolkit/index.html>

- Minneapolis Institute of the Arts and Walker Art Gallery interactive site with demonstrations of art elements and principles, and activities for students
- some elements and principles defined with visual representations
- K-5 grade age-adaptable

<http://www.getty.edu/education/>

- educational resources from the Getty Center including interactive games for students
- K-8 grade age-adaptable

http://www.harcourtschool.com/menus/art\_center.html

- Art Everywhere link contains links to activities including; timeline activity, multimedia glossary, biographies, reading skills, resources for teachers and parents
- Art Express link provides links to units and lessons from textbooks
- K-5 grade age-appropriate

<http://www.moma.org/interactives/destination/#>

- The Museum of Modern Art interactive online gallery
- K-2 grade age-appropriate

<http://www.nga.gov/kids/kids.htm>

- National Gallery of Art website
- Interactive site "The Art Zone" with activities to support content standards; can be easily adapted to use with SmartBoards,
- K-8 grade age-appropriate/adaptable

<http://olejarz.com/arted/perspective>

- interactive site on one-point perspective
- 4-8 grade age-appropriate

<http://www.si.edu/museums/>

- Smithsonian site provides links to various museums, such as National Zoological Park (live cams on animals), and National Museum of African Art ("UrStyle" interactive game)

<http://toledomuseum.org>

- Toledo Museum of Art links to collection, good visuals with descriptions of artwork and historical references
- K-8 grade age-appropriate